TAX APPEAL CE, COURTS & HOTELS!

TAX APPEALS -- BE INFORMED & EARN CEs – The Sterling Education Services is hosting their 2nd annual Property Tax Appeal class on December 1 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Southfield. Register on line www.sterlingeducation.com.

PROPERTY TAX REFORM IN LANSING – Both the Michigan Senate (Senate Bill 349) and the House (House Bill 4446) have introduced legislation to provide much needed property tax relief to Michigan homebuyers. These bills would allow buyers to take advantage of the Principal Residence Exemption even if they purchase a home after the May 1st filing deadline.

NEW RESIDENTIAL APPRAISAL GUIDELINES TAKE EFFECT – As of September 1, all residential appraisal report for lending purposes must comply with the new guidelines, Uniform Appraisal Dataset (UAD). These new guidelines are intended to allow all appraisers to utilize similar language when preparing residential appraisal reports to lessen confusion by the users of these reports.

CONGRATULATIONS TO TWO AMERICAN BANKS – Bloomberg has ranked Fifth Third Bank as the 7th world's strongest bank and JPMorgan Chase as 14th. Singapore's OCBC ranked #1, Svenska Handelsbanken (Sweden) #2 and National Bank of Canada as #3.

THE PEOPLE CAN GO TO COURT – The Michigan Supreme Court has struck down part of a state law that prevents people from going to court to appeal decisions from the State Tax Commission (STC). The Supreme Court was unanimous in saying the final sentence in the law violates the Michigan Constitution. The STC oversees property tax laws and advises assessors. It also hears disputes over how to classify property, such as commercial, industrial or residential.

HISTORY TRIVIA – On March 15, 1867, the University of Michigan became the first university in the nation to be funded by direct property tax.

JUDGE ABUSES DISCRETION IN FORECLOSURE – The District Court of Appeal of Florida (Republic Federal Bank NA v Doyle, 9/30/09), ruled that a trial judge who granted a continuance in a residential foreclosure case solely to help the defendants keep their home abused the court's discretion. By her own report, the trial court judge had no legal basis for granting the continuance.

NO VARIANCE IF HARDSHIP IS TYPICAL – In the case of Curran v Zoning Board of Appeals of City of Milford, the Appellate Court of Connecticut ruled that landowners were not entitled to a zoning variance based on a hardship typical of property in the district. The court emphasized that a zoning variance should be granted only when restrictions impose an exceptional hardship, which by definition is not shared generally with the district.

HOTELS MATURING DEBT – At a recent conference in Texas, Bob Massey, VP of hospitality assets for TriMont Real Estate Advisors, said pay downs of existing debt is the first thing borrowers should expect. "The first question I ask is, 'Do you have any money?'" Massey said. "No? 'Do you want to give me the keys today?'" He said it's inevitable that some owners will have to dip into their pockets to avoid losing assets. "You're going to see deleveraging...it's got to happen," Massey said. "You just can't kick this down the street." Another panelists stated that it's a "far cry from where the franchising world was a few years ago." Source: www.hotelnewsnow.com.
